

Press Release Effective Immediately: August 20, 2019

Winners of the 2019 Orchid Awards

It gives the Lewiston Historic Preservation Commission, great pleasure to acknowledge the efforts of the following winners of the 2019 Orchid Awards in the categories listed below.

A celebration and presentation of certificates will be conducted at midday on Saturday, September 14 2019 at the Heritage House, 0306 3rd Street behind the Museum in downtown Lewiston. We hope you will join us to recognize their efforts in historic preservation.

There will be refreshments and a talk on "Little Bubbles Finally Reaching the Surface" presented by local historian Steven Branting. The Nez Perce County Historical Society & Museum will be open to view exhibits.

Cultural Heritage Preservation

James Jameson – Building a dug-out canoe and preserving culture heritage.

Preservation-Sensitive New Construction

Jamie Knudson – New Construction at 226 1st Avenue.

Friend of Preservation

Paul Stewart – Volunteer Treasurer for the NPC Historical Society, wrote and administered grants.

Jeri McGuire – Historical Social Media; Facebook a holding place for Lewiston historical pictures that are shared with over 8,000 fans.

Contribution to Historic Preservation

Happy Day Corporation Inc. – Rehabilitation/Remodel of Mystic Café, 1303 Main Street.

Elizabeth Gossard Coleman – Rehabilitation/Remodel of 812 & 814 Main Street.

Newberry Square – Rehabilitation/Remodel of 800 & 808 Main Street.

International Order of Oddfellows Hall - Rehabilitation of 609 Main Street.

For more information on the Event, please contact Jacqui Gilbert (208) 746 1318 x7261 or visit Community Development at 215 D Street.